

Report of the Corporate Governance
For the financial year ending on March 31, 2026

The company's philosophy regarding corporate governance

The philosophy of Al-Madina Investment Holding Company SAOG “the Company” relies on the corporate governance principles within the Code of Corporate Governance issued to public shareholding companies in MSM. The Board of Directors is looking forward to building a sound and effective governance culture and accordingly, the Board of Directors and its specialized committees continuously evaluate the extent of their commitment and adherence to the practices, policies and procedures related to this valuable culture provided to stakeholders, and gain their trust at a high level of work ethics. The Board of Directors is committed to applying the best standards of organization and management and is continuously improving this to provide a role model for compliance with the Charter for Corporate Governance of public shareholding companies developed by the Capital Market Authority. Furthermore, it confirms its dedication towards the responsibilities required for the management of the company and provides transparency about the company's strategy.

Board of Directors

The board of directors is responsible for directing and supervising the company, setting and approving the company’s aims as well as the strategies and policies that must be adhered to in order to achieve the required goals. The board also reviews the company’s performance in relation to the set goals.

Nomination of board members

The Board of Directors as of March 31, 2026 consists of seven non-executive members and more than one third of the Board are independent.

The members of the Council were elected in its current session on June 2023 for a duration of three years. In the event that any seat of the Council becomes vacant, a new candidate is nominated to complete the term of the Council. The term of all current board members expires in 2026. Accordingly, the shareholders will elect a new board of directors. The formation of the board complies with the requirements of the charter and includes in its membership a group of highly qualified and experienced individuals in the fields of finance and investment.

All members of the company's board members are not board members of more than four public joint-stock companies whose activities are headquartered in the Sultanate of Oman. Furthermore, the chairman of the board of directors is not a chairman of the boards of more than two companies operating in the same field.

Election of board members

Shareholders are invited through announcements in newspapers and the electronic platform for the general assemblies of the Muscat Clearing and Depository Company website to submit their nominations for the membership of the Board of Directors. After conducting the necessary examination of the applications according to the requirements of the Financial Services Authority, the nominations are accepted and are subject to voting in the annual ordinary general assembly.

Information provided to Board members

Board members are provided with timely information so that they can maintain full and effective supervision over strategic, financial, operational, compliance, organizational and management matters.

Upon nomination, each board member receives information about the company and is informed of the legal, regulatory and other obligations of a board member of a public joint stock company.

Board meetings and a statement of attendance of meetings of the Board as well as the committees in addition to their participation in the management of other Omani public joint stock companies.

- The Audit Committee reports to the Board of Directors the results of the audit and the escalation of material issues.

2) Executive, nominations and remuneration Committee

The committee consists of three members and is chaired by an independent member nominated by the board. The committee is responsible for reviewing the company's general performance to enable it to take the necessary steps to carry out its work smoothly and to assist the board in taking appropriate decisions that are outside the powers of the executive management. The committee also assists the company's general assembly in terms of nominating members of the board of directors, submitting proposals to the Board regarding the appointment of the executive management and determining appropriate incentives and rewards that help the company obtain and maintain the best skills. The board of directors decided that the committee's meetings are to be held without fees at the time being due to the financial condition of the company.

The committee holds a meeting at least twice during the year, and the meeting is called at the request of the management or by the executive, nominations and remunerations committee. The tasks entrusted to the committee are within the framework of the powers granted to it. The Committee distributes the minutes of its meetings to the Board members and they are discussed on the Board.

The Executive, Nominations and Remunerations Committee convened twice during the financial year ending March 31st 2026, on 15 November 2025, and on 31 March 2026.
